Batter up!

Malibu Little League (MLL), tryouts were held at Bluffs Park on Saturday and Sunday. More than 180 boys and girls ages 7-12 put on their A-game and showed coaches the power in their pitch, batting and catching, all to join either a softball or baseball team. Coach Len Simonian said, “This is MLL’s 60th year serving the community and the kids as a 100% volunteer organization. We are looking forward to another great season!” Don’t miss out, make-up tryouts are this Thursday, Jan. 16, from 3:30-5:00. Any child wanting to join MLL must try out. Opening Day is Saturday, March 1st.

Water Reuse Symposium scheduled

The California Onsite Wastewater Association (COWA) has released its program for the Onsite Water Reuse Symposium scheduled in Malibu on Friday, Jan. 17. The event is to start at 8 a.m. Attending the lecture series is $75 and includes a selection of lunch options from gourmet food trucks. The accompanying Technology Fair and exhibits are free to the public.

The symposium will cover technological advancements that can help reuse and recycle wastewater in the Onsite Wastewater Treatment Industry. For more information or to register for the event, visit cowa.org.

Councilmember Laura Rosenthal reappointed

Malibu Councilmember Laura Rosenthal has been reappointed by the League of California Cities to the Environmental Quality Policy Committee.

“Malibu was founded on the principle of protecting its natural resources,” Rosenthal said.

The Environmental Quality Policy Committee examines issues related to air and water quality, the California Environmental Quality Act, integrated waste management, hazardous materials, coastal issues and utilities.

Organic gardening expert offers training program

Osborne Organics is to host an educational training program for those interested in learning how to create and maintain a naturally sustaining lawn, turf or landscape. The program will take place Jan. 28-30 at Malibu City Hall. The workshop will address how homeowners can conventionally approach lawn treatment and how the natural approach differs. To register for the workshop or find out more, visit osborneorganics.com nis as Derry’s new passion. Family and friends said they “will remember her as a good-hearted, kind and generous person, and nothing slowed down her love for good friends, family and a great party.”

Toni Colvin, a close friend, remembers Derry as “someone truly positive and upbeat. She always had a balanced view and remained positive even in challenge.”

She met the love of her life, Jim Cowan, and the two spent 15 years together. They traveled and frequently took trips to Jim’s cabin in Alaska.

The Cowan family said, “For the last 25 years, we were blessed to have Derry in our lives. Derry often spoke of her love and care for the children whom she taught and she showed great love for Jim. She will forever hold a special place in our hearts.”

Jim’s sister, Bev Mathis, remembered Derry as “the most wonderful sister ever.”

Survivors include brother Kevin Tichenor; nephews Scott and Mark; daughters Laurie Campbell (Holly and Ashley) and Juliette and Dr. Alfred Lerner; stepchildren Clark and Joanne Cowan (Matthew, Marissa and Alanna); Greg and Kendall Whitney (Scan, Kyle, and Tyler).

A celebration of life will take place on Feb. 9.
