Exotic car rally benefitting the Emily Shane Foundation brings hundreds to Malibu

The dozens of flashy sports cars that roared in to the Malibu Library parking lot amid cheers from Pepperdine students, car enthusiasts and Malibu locals early Saturday morning were there for more than an exotic car show—they came to honor the memory of Emily Shane, a 13-year-old Malibu girl who was struck and killed on the Pacific Coast Highway in 2010.

Organized by Pepperdine's professional business fraternity Delta Sigma Pi, the second annual "Peace on PCH" car show drew crowds of Pepperdine students, Malibu locals and car lovers from all over the Los Angeles area and benefited the Emily Shane Foundation.
